Integritas concentrates on four human relationships, namely with: (i) God, the persons of the Trinity; (ii) one's own nature and calling; (iii) family, friends and the local Christian community and (iv) the universal Church, humanity and creation. These four relationships are seen as central to realising the integrity of Christian faith and addressing the separation of culture and religion.

PROGRAMME

Contemplative Prayer takes place weekly on Wednesday evenings at 8.00 p.m., from September to June.

The following courses are held intermittently on Saturday mornings:

'The Integrity of Christian Life' explores Missionary Discipleship and the discernment of each person's unique mission and vocation;

'Familial Love and Friendship' considers scriptural and theological insights into the nature of love within family, friendship and the local Christian community;

'Christian Reflections on Being Human' examines Christian Anthropology so as to address profound questions about the universal Church, human identity and our place in creation.

Email notifications about these upcoming courses are sent out periodically. Please contact us if you would like to be added to this electronic mailing list.
